

ACCOUNTANT ROLE

Are you an accountant currently working in practice and looking for a new role? We're looking for a new recruit to join our small but mighty team here in Scotlandwell, near Kinross.

The Role

The role is office based, varied, and is a genuine general practitioner role. It includes processing transactions and reconciling bank accounts, preparing VAT returns, assisting clients with bookkeeping queries, preparing tax returns, and year end accounts for sole traders, partnerships and limited companies. There will be significant client engagement, and as part of a busy office, there is always something to do, so it is important that the successful candidate is willing to put their hand to whatever is required. This role could be part time or full time, but a minimum of three days per week would be required. Salary will depend upon experience.

The Candidate

You will enjoy liaising with clients directly and have a friendly persona. It is likely you will be CA, ACCA or AAT qualified, but we place more importance on your ability to do the role than any qualifications held, so those part qualified or qualified by experience are also encouraged to apply. You must be comfortable using book keeping packages such as Xero and Quickbooks, and also have significant experience in accounting and tax software. A good knowledge of current tax rules affecting owner managed businesses and FRS 105/FRS 102 is also preferred. We envisage the successful candidate having at least 3 years recent experience in a general practice role, but are open to those who have moved into industry or work elsewhere, but have historical experience in a general practice role. You will have a good work ethic, a can do attitude, and take pride in your work, being mindful of client service and cost efficiencies. You must be able to work independently but also work as part of our team, helping out wherever necessary.
